PLOT:

NB: Juno was the Roman Goddess of childbirth and marriage.

The story of "Juno" is familiar: a teenage girl has sex one time and becomes pregnant. But Juno (Ellen Page) is not your average high schooler. Taking matters into her own hands, she explores her various options before telling her parents (J.K. Simmons and Allison Janney) of her condition. Juno then proceeds, with her parents' and friends' help, to manage her life. Her stepmother deals with the ultrasound technician (ecografo). Her father takes her to meet the prospective adoptive parents. Of course, things don't always go as planned but throughout the nine months gestation of her child, Juno confronts life on her own, unique terms.

The SOUNDTRACK is great ranging from Lou Reed, David Bowie, Courtney Love, The Kinks, Sonic Youth, to Kimya Dawson.

AWARDS: At the Academy Awards 2008 it won for Best Writing, Screenplay Written Directly for the Screen.
